

Major German investment manager opens branch in London

KGAL forges ahead with international strategy

Grünwald, Germany 06.06.2019 – KGAL Capital GmbH & Co. KG, a sales company of KGAL Group, has opened a branch in London. KGAL Group is a leading, independent investment and asset manager with assets under management of €20.5bn (£18.2bn). Its investment focus is on long-term capital investments for institutional and private investors in the real estate, infrastructure and aviation asset classes.

Commenting on the new KGAL Capital London Branch, Florian Martin, Managing Director of KGAL Capital and member of KGAL Executive Board said: “ We believe that London will remain the financial hub of Europe. We see representation there as a key part of our international strategy, providing us with more direct access both to professional clients directly and the investment consultancy market which serves institutional investors globally.”

The business has taken space in the Cannon Green development in Bush Lane EC4 and its London team will initially comprise the following sales directors who will focus on specific markets:

- Jonathan May - UK & Ireland
- Elin Aberg - Scandinavia
- Peter Tschüscher - Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria and Italy

Tim van den Brande completes the international team, acting out of Grünwald and being in charge for the Benelux region, France and Australia. Further additions to the international team are planned in due course.
